Fine Arts Program

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Fine Arts Program of the University of the Philippines Cebu was established in 1975 as the first institution to offer formal art training outside of Metro Manila. Graduates from the Studio Arts and Product Design majors have contributed immensely to the development of the arts and culture in the region and in the national art community as professional studio artists, designers, art teachers, multi-media creatives, and cultural workers among others. Our program prides itself in furthering proficiencies, competencies and skills, and increasing research and creative work within the visual arts, design, and culture domains.

STUDIO ARTS MAJOR

The Studio Arts offers training and mentoring within and beyond the following steams of artistic disciplines; namely Drawing, Painting, Printmaking, Sculpture, Installations, Performance Art, Digital Art, Animation, and emerging New-Media technologies.

The Studio Arts course provide students with the opportunity to develop a unique visual language through a body of work supported by a foundation knowledge in art history and theory, explorations on material and techniques, and contextual factors. A practice-led approach to art production research leads to an exhibition of studio work output as the basis of a written thesis.

PRODUCT DESIGN MAJOR

The Product Design offers training and mentoring to students aspiring to be design professionals of contemporary functional items, manufactured products, and concept application services for the wider creative industries.

The Product Design course nurtures the students ability to develop a distinctive design identity through a body of work supported by a strong grasp of design history and theory, explorations on material and technical processes, and on the job training with leading design companies. A design thinking strategy to product development research leads to a public presentation of innovative design output as the basis of a written thesis.
